SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES DIVISION MEETING

Wednesday, April 11, 2012, 2:00pm, NEA 187

Attendance:  Brad Young, *Elena Reigadas, Ellen Joiner, Janice Sandell, Son Nguyen, *Jim Stanbery, Bill Loiterman, Michael Agopian, Mike Reid, Craig Patterson, Joan Thomas-Spiegel and Yvette Parra. *absent

Schedule and Catalog:  B. Young announced the fall schedule will be available next Monday for review.  He asked everyone to review the 2013/2014 course catalog for corrections to course descriptions or courses that should be archived.  This should be completed by April 16th. The schedule was submitted as discussed and should be accurate.  S. Nguyen and E. Joiner completed the necessary paperwork to the History Degree.

Budget:  The Budget Task Force reported the college is 190,000 in the hole this year.  The District budget from the state has been reduced to 25.2 million and may have to reduce 400 adjunct classes. The November vote of Prop 30 will affect maintenance only.  Even with the tax vote we wouldn’t see much for the college.

Bond:  The District handed out percentages on what colleges owe in insurance. The bond lost 20 million for insurance and attorney fees. CPC will meet next Tuesday to discuss the master plan.

Open Floor:
J. Thomas-Spiegel was asked to join the ATAC committee.  B. Young and M. Reid are attending a Public Safety Conference, please email if you have any questions.  S. McMurray sent out the District Academic Senate resolutions on textbooks. Please review.  B. Young: Norton Publishing is willing to come out to give presentation every semester. This will assist with lesson plans and test banks.

Meeting ended at 3:30.
