DEPENDENT STUDENT - VERIFICATION OF SNAP BENEFITS

Last Name     First Name     Middle Initial     Social Security Number

SECTION A: Verification of SNAP benefits

If your parents indicated on your FAFSA that anyone in their household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during 2012 and/or 2013, you need to verify this data element.

Your parents’ household includes:

• The student.
• The parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn’t live with the parents.
• The parents’ other children if the parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2014–2015. This includes children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
• Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Using the information and definition above, did anyone in your parents’ household receive SNAP benefits in 2012 and/or 2013?

☐ Yes
☐ No

If asked by the student’s college, we will provide documentation of the receipt of SNAP benefits during 2012 and/or 2013.

SECTION B: Certification and Signatures

By signing this worksheet, we certify that all the information reported on it is complete and correct. We understand that we must submit any required documents and forms as noted above, based on our circumstances, before the student’s financial aid file may be ready for review. We also understand that false statements and/or misrepresentations on this worksheet may result in fines, sentencing to jail, loss of financial aid eligibility, and/or required repayment of financial aid already received.
