

FREDRICK K. HO, CPA, MBA

Phone:(310) 233-4183

Email: hofk@laccd.edu

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

- Accomplished accounting professor with a comprehensive blend of hands-on professional and academic accounting experience.
- Consummate accountant who is passionate about the potential and impact of accounting.
- Innovative educator devoted to teaching and learning.

EDUCATION:

March, 1991 Master of Business Administration with concentration in Accounting, California State University, Los Angeles.

June, 1987 Bachelor of Science in Accounting, University of Southern California.

June, 1987 Certificate Degree in Programming and Data Processing, University of Southern California.

ACADEMIC/TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

2007 To Present Los Angeles Community College District -Los Angeles Harbor College

Full-time, Tenured Faculty. Teaching undergraduate financial and managerial accounting. Working with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds in a class size averaging 50 students. Development and teaching of online intermediate accounting using the Etudes platform. Participating in division and college governance activities such as committees, program review, and Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) assessment duties.

2008 To Present University of the West

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching graduate and undergraduate financial and managerial accounting. Working with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds in a class size averaging 20 students. Taught hybrid financial accounting course which included an online component using the Moodle platform.

1999 to Present Ho & Associates, Inc. CPA

Partner. Designing, coordinating, and teaching entrepreneurial training seminars in the areas of accounting, payroll, taxation, and general business concepts for various for-profit and non-profit organizations including First Interstate Bank, and the Los Angeles Community Development Bank

FREDRICK K. HO, CPA, MBA

Phone:(310) 233-4183

Email: hofk@laccd.edu

ACADEMIC/TEACHING EXPERIENCE (Continued):

2007 To 2009

California State University, Dominguez Hills

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching undergraduate financial accounting. Working with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds in a class size averaging 40 students. Worked with the online teaching platform Blackboard.

2003 to 2007

Pasadena City College

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching undergraduate financial and managerial accounting courses to classes averaging 40 students. Working extensively with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, cultural backgrounds as well as those with disabilities. Participating in division and college governance activities such as commencement and Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) related functions.

2007 To 2007

ITT Technical Institute

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching undergraduate finance and economic courses.

2005 to 2005

Citrus College

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching undergraduate financial accounting to a class averaging 35 students. Working extensively with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds.

2005 to 2005

Orange Coast Community College

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching undergraduate managerial accounting to a class averaging 35 students. Working extensively with faculty and students from diverse socio-economic, academic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds.

1991 to 1993

Monterey Park College

Adjunct Faculty. Teaching bookkeeping concepts and accounting software applications in a vocational school environment to classes averaging 30 students.

1986 to 1987

University of Southern California

Teaching Assistant. Assisted in teaching various programming languages, including Basic and Cobol as well as microcomputer software applications in classes averaging 40 students.

FREDRICK K. HO, CPA, MBA

Phone:(310) 233-4183

Email: hofk@laccd.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

1995 to Present

Ho & Associates, Inc. CPA

Partner. In charge of supervising, reviewing, and overall administration of engagements including audits of for-profit and non-profit entities in accordance Generally Accepted Auditing Standards, reviews and compilations of financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Preparing corporation and individual tax returns, as well as tax planning. General business consulting services including business valuations.

1991 to 1995

Aguiar Novack & Associates, CPAs

Manager. In charge of supervising, reviewing, and overall administration of engagements including audits of for-profit and non-profit entities in accordance Generally Accepted Auditing Standards, reviews and compilations of financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Preparing corporation and individual tax returns, as well as tax planning.

1987 to 1991

Kennard Design Group

Senior Accountant. Maintained the accounting system and the periodic preparation of financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Assisting in the gathering of relevant data and documentation in preparation for audits and the filing of various corporate tax returns.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2009

Certificate of Recognition, AICPA/Private Companies Practice Section

2003

Certificate of Recognition, PCPS/The AICPA Alliance for CPA Firms.

2003

Certificate of Recognition, AICPA Peer Review Program.

SCHOLARLY CONTRIBUTIONS:

Ho, Fredrick (2012), "Internal Controls over Cash for Small Nonprofits" Minority and Small Business Review, Vol.10, Pages 42-47..

Ho, Fredrick (2011), "Tax-Exempt Organizations' Best Practices" Minority and Small Business Review, Vol.9, Pages 75-77.

Ho, Fredrick (2002), "The Young Entrepreneur," Youthful Dollars Magazine, Vol.2, Issue 1, Pages 8-9.

Curriculum Vitae

FREDRICK K. HO, CPA, MBA

Phone:(310) 233-4183

Email: hofk@laccd.edu

LICENSES:

1994 to Present Certified Public Accountant (California)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

1994 to Present California State Board of Accountancy
1994 to Present American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
1994 to Present PCPS/Partnership for CPA Practice Success
1994 to Present California Society of Certified Public Accountants

SKILLS:

- Knowledge of SLOs (Student Learning Outcomes) and related assessment tools.
- Knowledge in software includes: Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Powerpoint, Quickbooks, TurboTax, ProSeries, and Lacerte.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- Mentoring Asian Pacific students interested in pursuing a career in Accounting, University of Southern California, 2003
- Volunteering for the East Los Angeles VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) program sponsored for low-income residents, 2002
- Board member for the Chinatown East Wind Youth Foundation, 2001 to 2003.