

M I C H A E L A . C A R E S S M A . O D , C G B P

Mr. Caress has a strong professional background in the organization development, international trade and logistics sectors. In addition to his role as adjunct business instructor at Los Angeles Harbor College, Michael supports the statewide expansion of the California International Trade Center (CITC) – Virtual Internship Program (VIP) and serves as LAHC’s Strong Workforce Program faculty contact. As part of these roles, he works with faculty, career center staff, business services, industry experts and students to enhance career pathways, implement sector-specific work-based learning opportunities and engage employers.

In addition to bringing more than 25 years of experience, Mr. Caress holds a Master of Science in Human and Organizational Systems from Fielding Graduate University, Santa Barbara and a B.S. in Business Administration – International Business option from California State University, Fresno. He has several professional credentials including the Certified Global Business Professional (CGBP) from the National Association of Small Business and International Trade Educators and is recognized by the Hudson Institute, Santa Barbara as a Certified Professional Coach.